70m Awards

In the early years of the Hammer Circle a qualifying distance had to be achieved in order to become a member. It was an honour to be accepted into this elite club and throwers were awarded a cloth badge which was hand stitched onto their blazer and worn with pride. There were several badges which had increasing numbers of circles at the top to denote the distance thrown in feet and inches. Over the years this custom faded away and we now have one standard logo with three circles.

7.26kg Men & 4kg Women

In an attempt to resurrect this tradition we introduced an award to recognise the 70m milestone with the senior hammer, male or female from 2009 onwards. The award is an engraved hipflask for the gents and an engraved cut glass paperweight for the ladies.
